THE HOUSE OF REFUGE

The Alleged Abuses in the House of Refuge-The State Commissioners of Public Charities to Investigate Them-Card from President Strong.

The HERALD has from time to time published reports detailing the incidents connected with the management of the House of Refuge, and has suggested that a thorough inquiry be instituted by the proper authorities into its management, with a proper authorities into its management, with a view of eliciting the truth as to the alleged irregularities. The fact that an inquiry has been ordered will be a matter of congratulation to all who have been instrumental in calling attention to the House of Refuge and its management.

That such inquiry is to be made is vouched for in the following eard, forwarded to the Herald yesterday:—

terday:—
To the Editor of the Herald:—
The Managers of the House of Refuge have noticed the article in your issue of July II, headed, "Pope Jones Deminion," containing a number of unjust allegations purporting to be derived from one William Kinney, a boy recently discharged from the institution. They pronounce the statements of this boy as to the alleged cruelties indicated by the statements of this boy as to the alleged cruelties indicated by the statements of this boy as to the alleged cruelties indicated by the statements of this boy as to the alleged cruelties and withholding their earnings wrongfully and unqualifiedly false. The investigation into the condition and management of the institution has been entered upon by the Board of State Commissioners of Public Charittes, who will conduce the same until the whole truth is elicited.

The State Commissioners of Public Charittes are

OLIVER S. STRONG, President.
The State Commissioners of Public Charities are Messrs, J. V. L. Pruyn, of Albany, President; T. W.
Dwight, Vice President, and Nathan Bishep. These gentlemen met on Thursday, at Randall's Island, and, after a consultation with the Board of Managers, the preliminaries of the proposed investigation were arranged and an adjournment was had,
in order to give time to prepare certain statements required by the Commissioners, as also to procure a fuller attendance of the State Board.

AN ASSAULT WITH A HATCHET.

Catharine O'Connor, living at No. 73 Van Brunt street, Brooklyn, assaulted her husband with a hatchet last night, and produced a dangerous wound on his head. She was arrested and lodged
